

Things to See and Do in Golden: October 2008

*There's always something good happening in Golden.
Don't miss any of it!*

Downtown Events

Story Time at Clear Creek Books

Every Wednesday morning.

Colorado Environmental Film Festival

An exciting, inspiring, and energizing event that includes world-class environmental films, an engaging exhibition hall with representatives from local and national organizations and companies, topical forums and discussions, and a children's environmental film program. American Mountaineering Center. Oct. 2nd – 5th.

"Knock Your Boots Off" Golden's Chili Cook-Off – Golden's First Friday Block Party

This brand new event should be a very exciting venture as it is the night before CSM homecoming football game with all the activities planned on campus with large crowds to arrive in Golden. Oct. 3rd.

Farmers Market

Next to the Golden Library at 10th & Illinois Streets. Last one October 4th!

Golden Super Cruise

Rock with Super Cruise DJ Van Jeffries on South Golden Road and Group Cruise downtown. Oct. 4th.

The Seamy Side of Denver

Jack Stone presents a portrait of early Denver from a gambler's point-of-view. Hear about the lives of saloon keepers, gold prospectors, and other unsavory characters. Learn the surprising real history of the Denver we know today. Astor House Museum. Oct. 18th.

Golden Cemetery Tour

Tour the Golden Cemetery where a guide will introduce you to some "ghosts" from Golden's past. Golden Pioneer Museum. Oct. 18th and 19th.

Halloween Crazy Days

Halloween in downtown Golden is great. The Downtown Merchants Association gives away candy, and the street is packed with hundreds of children (and sometimes adults) in costume. October 31st.

Theater

Miners Alley Playhouse: Summertree

"Summertree" begins with a 20-year-old man dreaming in his backyard by a tree. As the play progresses, we learn that this tree is not in the man's backyard, but in fact much less friendly territory. Through – Oct. 26th.

Heritage Square Music Hall: The Hound of the Baskervilles

Join us for a spooky fun mystery! Through Nov. 9th.

Music

A Symphonic Celebration of Scotland – Jefferson Symphony Orchestra

Symphony No. 3, Op. 56, A Minor (Scottish) - Felix Mendelssohn; Scottish Fantasy - Max Bruch (Erik Peterson, violin); An Orkney Wedding, with Sunrise - Peter Maxwell Davies. Green Center. Oct. 12th.

Exhibits

Golden Pioneer Museum: Golden in the 1920s. Through Oct. 31st.

Rocky Mountain Quilt Museum: Amish Quilts - 30 years of collecting from the Hite Collection and Above the Barr - collection from national quilter Barbara Barr. Through Nov. 1st.
